

Stolen generation

- 1970 - 1970 - children were stolen as a result of government policies.
- This act continues to affect people to this day, hence "generations" why?
 - ↳ white superiority
 - ↳ aborigines seen as a "dying race"
- A.O. Neville's solution was through biological absorption and miscegenation. 'Breeding with aborigines until they are not black anymore'.
- Assimilation
 - Children were taught to reject their indigenous origin.
 - Their names were changed.
 - They were forced to not speak in their tra. lang.
 - Adopted by white families.

Australian Federation, note.

- economy
- to be a (united?) nation.
- on 1st Jan 1901
 - ↳ before this, they were simply a colony of ~~England~~ Britain, and this is their independence.
 - ↳ when you become a federation, you gain independence; however, you are not a republic and still need approval from Britain for things. you transform from a 5yo. child to a 15yo. teenager.
- there is ^{constitutional} monarchy of Queen Victoria.
- they've chosen themselves to stay in constitutional monarchy.
- power was divided between the big parliament and the six colonies (states).
- they had independent things like taxes, post offices, etc.
- the constitution is similar to American Cons.
- they've met in Melbourne to discuss the terms.
- Governor general is the top head of the six independent federations.

Australian Constitution

- Constitution had to be approved by Britain by the British ~~Parliament Act.~~ Act of Parliament.
- was written by the representatives of the six colonies. they were given permission by British ~~for~~, but were still subject to British laws.

- reigning British monarch is still head of the state of ^{Australia (mate)} ~~Australia~~, too.
 - ↳ then comes governor general, symbolic replacement of the head of the state, i.e. monarch.
- they wanted to keep Asians out of Australia, bc they were stealing jobs and THERE HAD TO BE A ^{#makeas great again} WALL BUILT TO KEE... wait... that is sth. else.
